Customer Satisfaction is always our Top Priority.

From the day you receive the product, you have 7 days to return it for refund without a restocking fee. A 15% restocking fee will be applied for all returns after a 7-day return period. Shipping fees are absolutely non-refundable on returns, if the order has free shipping; a 15% restocking fee will be applied to cover for our shipping and handling cost. It is the purchaser's responsibility to cover all the shipping charges to return the parts for exchange or refund after a 30-day grace period from date of purchase, unless the product is found to be defective or improperly shipped, in which case we will gladly cover the shipping cost. All our Exhaust and HID products come with a replacement warranty. All parts must be in original condition, with reasonable wear and tear. All faults due to improper installation, improper use, damage due to collision, or intentional abuse will NOT be covered by the warranty in any way. Any physical damage such as soldering or modifications will VOID the warranty as well.

For fast exchange or return process, please include the following forms in the return package:

1. This Exchange & Return Form

2. A copy of all conversations and/or a copy of the original purchase document

Once we receive the package, we will exchange or refund for you within 2-3 business days.
